Mr. Thos. Harris of this place has been employed as Piano and Organ salesman for Prof. Sparks. Mr. Harris has a reputation of being strictly honest and square in all his transactions. In short he is a christian gentleman in whom the public may place implicit confidence.

The Report of the Health officer to the council last Tuesday evening shows a healthy condition of our town during the past year and shows highly commendable service on the part of the health officer and the board in enforcing the sanitary laws of the city. The report is published elsewhere.

The weather on Inauguration day was in full sympathy with the republicans. It was a cold day. Like a chicken with its head cut off, the old party died in terrible struggles. Spring is with us. The country is democratic, every thing is secure and lovely. Now is the time to subscribe, pay when you please.

Mrs. Dr. D. Little has begun improvement on the Gimble building, the ground floor rooms will be remodeled and repaired and a second story will be added, for family tenements. Mr. Gabriel of Athens and Mr. Lemon of Frash's Grocery, Logan, have formed a partnership and will occupy the corner room with a tobacco store, and cigar manufactory.

A capable committee, are examining the maps made by our school with a view to selecting the very best to be forwarded to the Chicago Exposition. It is difficult to determine the best when all are so good, but the space in the exhibition hall is so limited that only a few can be accepted. We hope however that the very excellent work of our children will be shown at our next fair, an exhibit of their handiwork in this regard will certainly be an attractive feature of our next fair.

various grades of similarly appearing fabrics, and there to the trimming and make-up of the garment must also be, and are considered by shrewd and intelligent buyers.

Chas. Rose will place upon his tables only such qualities as are known to be the most reliably manufactured, and by which they will stand in each and every instance. Don't you think it will be to your interest to convince yourself that your money is buying all that it can, both in quality and price before you part with it? We will have very little trouble to impress you with the fact that as Great and Grand Line of fine and ready-to-wear Clothing you have ever had an opportunity to look upon. We are determined to make this year's display such as shall create a lasting impression on the minds of the frugal Clothing Buyers, of Logan. We shall be pleased at any time to have you inspect our stock and get our prices, which are always marked in plain figures on each and every article in our house, and will invariably be the lowest price in this or any other town for similar qualities.

We Will Show for the Coming Season,

Examiners' Report.

To The Honorable Probate Judge:
Hocking County Ohio.

Sir:
By authority derived from you, officially, bearing date the 2nd day of March, 1893, as Examiners, without previous notice or intimation, to the County Treasurer, or any person, of such intention, forthwith entered into the County Treasury office, and examined the Books, Records and Vouchers thereof, together with all other property which should be in the custody of the Treasurer. We then proceeded forthwith to the office of the County Auditor, and ascertained how much money the County Treasurer stood charged with on Auditor's books; also exact amount money property, bonds, securities, assets and effects, that should be to the treasury, and the amount belonging to each particular fund. In compliance with the law requiring certification of such examination, we hereby certify that Nineteen Thousand Five Hundred and Twenty Seven Dollars and twenty cents was the exact amount of money so found and counted. In the County Treasury and that the statement annexed, which agrees with the books of the Auditor, presents the exact business and over payments in each fund and the amount of property then in the custody of the Treasurer.

Respectfully Submitted,
J. M. FLOYD
L. A. CULVER, JR., Examiners.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the New Boot and Shoe Store of Stockwell & Beck in the Murphy Building. The stock of goods include all the latest styles, and the best quality of material the markets afford. Gun Steinman, well known and esteemed by all our readers is manager in charge, and invites all his friends to come in and see him, and look at the handsome goods he keeps for sale.

A young man named Charley Mullen, of Athens, formerly employed as a brakeman on the Hocking Valley while giving voluntary help in coupling cars at Sugar Grove on last Monday evening, got his arm crushed. He was brought to Logan and his arm was amputated by Drs. Campbell, Dye and Pullen. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

Guthrie & Co have just received a very large and well selected stock of shoes at Mig's prices.

Rooms for rent, and one house for sale. Enquire of Mrs. D. R. Bishop.
